THE MATCHUP

Bentley heads to the Rocky Mountains this weekend for the first two of four meetings this season with Air Force. Bentley is currently 2-1 in Atlantic Hockey play and is tied for fourth place with RIT with four points. Air Force, the three-time defending Atlantic Hockey champions, is in its usual spot atop the standings with a 3-1 record in conference play. Bentley will be looking for a small measure of revenge this weekend as Air Force has eliminated Bentley from the postseason two years in a row. This will be the second time this season Bentley is facing an NCAA Tournament team from last year after playing Northeastern in the season-opener. Air Force advanced to the East Regional final last spring before losing to Vermont in overtime.

RECAP OF LAST WEEKEND

The Falcons earned a split of their home series with Mercyhurst last weekend at Ryan Skating Arena. Bentley took the first game 4-2 behind three power play goals, a game-winning goal by freshman Dan Koudys and strong play in net by junior Joe Calvi. With the score tied at two in the second period, Koudys put the Falcons ahead for good with a power play goal. In the third period, freshman Joe Campanelli tacked on an insurance goal. Bentley had its best showing of the season on the power play, going 3-6, while its penalty kill held Mercyhurst to an 0-5. Calvi made 26 saves for his second straight win.

The next night was all Mercyhurst. The Lakers took a 1-1 game late in the first period and turned it into a 4-1 advantage by the midway point of the second period. Senior Marc Menziona had two power play goals for the Falcons.

BENTLEY NOTES

Koudys has gotten his collegiate career off to a hot start. He's tied for the team lead in points with a 3-4-7 line and leads the way in assists. The Ontario native is tied for the league lead in points among freshmen with Adam Pleskach of AIC. Among freshmen nationally, he's tied for fifth in scoring. He also has the winning goal in both Bentley wins.

After going 0-13 on the power play in two games against Quinnipiac and UConn, the unit came alive with a 3-6 in last Friday's win. The Falcons will be without the services of junior Dustin Cloutier for a while, who is out with a broken hand. Cloutier is Bentley's

Atlantic Hockey Awards

PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

Dan Ringwald, RIT

GOALTENDER OF THE WEEK:

Ben Meisner, AIC

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK:

Chris Tanev, RIT

top returning scorer from last season after putting up a 17-17-34 line in 38 games. After a terrific freshman season, goalie Kyle Rank is experiencing a bit of a sophomore slump early on this year. In two starts, he's 0-2 with a 4.48 goals against average. The six goals he allowed in last Saturday's loss to Mercyhurst was a career-high.

Bentley has uncharacteristically taken a lot of penalties thus far. They are averaging 17.8 penalty minutes per game, which is 13th in Division I.

After this weekend, Bentley has two straight home series against Sacred Heart and Army. Neither team has visited Watertown since the 2007-08.

AIR FORCE NOTES

After winning the Atlantic Hockey Tournament for a third straight year and narrowly losing in the East Regional final, Air Force is again considered the favorite in Atlantic Hockey. The Falcons return 19 players from last year's squad, including All-American forward Jacques Lamoureux and first team All-Conference goalie Andrew Volkening. Air Force lost its first four games of the season at Bemidji State and home against Alabama-Huntsville, but has won three of its last four. They swept RIT at home two weekends ago, then split at Canisius last weekend.

Lamoureux and senior Matt Fairchild have picked up where they left off last season. They lead the team in scoring, Lamoureux at 4-4-8 and Fairchild at 3-5-8. Two freshmen have also gotten off to hot starts. Forward John Kruse is at 1-5-6 through six games, and forward Kyle De Laurell is at 1-5-6 through seven games.

SERIES NOTES

These two teams have become familiar foes over the past two seasons, meeting 11 times, eight times in the regular season and three times in the playoffs. Air Force swept Bentley in the quarterfinals of the 2008 tournament, outscoring Bentley 12-3. Air Force then beat Bentley 3-0 in the semifinals of last year's tournament in Rochester, N.Y. Air Force is 8-2-1 against Bentley over those 11 games.

Air Force has gotten the better of the all-time series, leading 16-6-2 and 8-2-1 in Colorado Springs. Bentley has not beaten Air Force on the road since a 6-5 win on Oct. 21, 2006. Bentley's last win over Air Force, 4-1 on Feb. 14 of last year, was the program's first ever over a ranked team, as Air Force was ranked No. 20 at the time.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Trottier is the nephew of Hockey Hall of Famer Bryan Trottier, who won six Stanley Cups in his playing days with the New York Islanders and Pittsburgh Penguins. Trottier's father, Monty, and uncle, Rocky, also played in the NHL.

THAT'S A LOT OF OFFENSE TO REPLACE

Bentley will have to make up for the loss of its entire top line from last season, Dain Prewitt, Anthony Canzoneri and Jeff Gumaer. The three were Bentley's leading scorers last season, and combined for 46 goals and 68 assists. For their careers, they combined for 150 goals and 200 assists.

BENTLEY PICKED SEVENTH IN PRESEASON POLL

Air Force grabbed the top-spot in the poll with 80 points and eight of the 10 first-place votes. Two-time tournament runner-up Mercyhurst was picked second with 70 points and the remaining two first-place votes. RIT (67 points), Holy Cross (54) and Canisius (53) round out the top-five. Army (40) was picked sixth, followed by Bentley (31). Sacred Heart (27), Connecticut (18) and American International (10) round out the poll.
