First Week 2015 is a program designed to make your transition to university life as easy as possible. Get set for social and educational activities and a world full of fun with your classmates. Use this booklet as a day-by-day guide to First Week 2015.

In your First-Year Seminar class, you will receive information about classes that you must attend during the week: computer orientation and distribution, GB112 (Tools and Concepts in Accounting and Finance) and a program on building community. There are also a number of interesting and informative sessions that you should attend throughout the week. Mandatory sessions for all students are designated by a star (★).

Should you have questions during First Week 2015, there are plenty of people around campus to answer them. First-Year Seminar student facilitators, resident assistants and international peer advisers can be valuable resources.

There’s a lot happening on our First Week schedule, so get ready to begin the next adventure of your lifetime — your career at Bentley University.

SUSTAINABILITY AT BENTLEY
Natalie Berland, Manager, Sustainability, and Rich Oches, Professor, Natural and Applied Sciences
Jennison Hall, Room 310
At Bentley, sustainability is not only an important part of the campus operations — it’s also an integral part of student life and the curriculum. Find out how you can integrate a liberal arts and business degree and leadership understanding of the principles of sustainability education, and learn how you can get involved with efforts to make Bentley and the community more sustainable from a top to bottom-line perspective. Learn about sustainability-related majors and minors from Professor Rich Oches in the Natural and Applied Sciences department, as well as campus-wide sustainability programs from Bentley’s Manager of Sustainability Natalie Berland.

FENWAY EXPERIENCE

Bus stop: Trees Bus Stop
Get the most of your Boston experience by seeing the historical Fenway Park. Fenway Park is a baseball park located near Kenmore Square in Boston. The oldest ballpark in Major League Baseball, Fenway has been the home of the Boston Red Sox team since it opened in 1912. Because of its age and constrained location in Boston's dense Fenway-Kenmore neighborhood, the park has been renovated or expanded many times, resulting in quirky features including "the Triangle." A picnic lunch will be provided at the summit.

11:00 a.m.

BLUE HILLS HIKING

Bus stop: Collins Hall
Includes boxed lunch
Join your guide and explore the Blue Hills Reservation. Located only minutes from downtown Boston, the DCR Blue Hills Reservation stretches more than 7,000 acres across Quincy, Milton, and Randolph, providing a green oasis in an urban environment. Rising above the horizon, Great Blue Hill reaches a height of 635 feet, the highest of the 22 hills in the Blue Hills chain. From the rocky summit, visitors can see over the entire metropolitan area. A picnic lunch will be provided at the summit.

9:45 a.m.

SPIRIT OF BOSTON

Bus stop: Trees Bus Stop
Come aboard the Spirit of Boston for the perfect mix of dining, entertainment, food and views. Cruising year-round through Boston's historic Seaport District, Spirit offers lunch with a view. Designed for fun, comfort and incredible harbor views, Spirit of Boston is ready to show you the city from one of three climate-controlled interior decks with panoramic windows or the topside open-air rooftop deck.
